

ANN & BILL ROSENBLUM

Temple Israel Cemetery – Memphis, TN

זְכוֹרֵנוּם לְבָרָכָה.
Zichronam liv'rachah.
May their memories be for blessing.

Rosenblum, William

Mr. Rosenblum was born in Mt. Olive, Mississippi, October 12, 1909. He attended schools in New Orleans, Louisiana. He was in business with his father until 1940, when he moved to Jackson. He operates ladies ready-to-wear stores in Jackson and other cities.

His father was Hillel Rosenbloom, a prominent merchant on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. He died in 1948. His mother, Leah Rosenblum, resides in New Orleans. He has two sisters, Mrs. Abe Rubenstein and Mrs. Morris Barton of New Orleans. He has five brothers. They are James (Gulfport, Mississippi), Moses (Nashville, Tennessee), Charles (Hammond, Louisiana), Leo (Nashville, Tennessee), and Dave (Biloxi, Mississippi).

Mrs. William Rosenbloom (Ann Frohlich) was born in New York City March 14, 1910. Her father, Kopel Frohlich, was a prominent jewelry in Montgomery, Alabama. Her mother, Fannie Frohlich, as a well as her father, was born in Austria and came to New York when very young and married there. One sistr living, Mrs. Rose Friedman of Biloxi, Mississippi. Lost sister Silvia (wife of Dave Rosenblum) in 1954.