Jewish Officers Elected; Baptists Invite Fellowship

Officers of the Congregation of B'Nai Israel, organized here in 1885, were elected this week with Don Friedman named to succeed Jonas Kisber Jr. as president.

Other officers are: Buddy Glassman, first vice president; Joe Lipshie, second vice president; treasurer, Bess Crane; financial secretary, Max Zachariah; and recording secretary, Sam Wahl.

Trustees are: Dave Richman, chairman; Joe Cohen, Shirley Richman, George Axelrad and Jonas Kisber Jr.

Named to the cemetery board: Carl Alper, chairman; David Crane, superintendent; Buddy Glassman, Max Zachariah and Jane Friedman.

The Jewish temple was built in 1941 at the corner of West Grand and Campbell Streets. The regular service of worship is held on Friday night at 8 o'clock and Sunday School classes every Sunday from 10:30 a.m. until noon. Student Rabbi Bradley Bleefeld from the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati, a Jewish seminary, conducts services here once a month.

When the rabbi is not here, lay services are held at 5:45 p.m. on Friday, to which the public is invited.

President Friedman says any local Sunday School classes who would like to visit the temple are welcome.

In the area of inter-religious fellowship, Sam Wahl noted that the congregation of B'Nai Israel was invited Wednesday night to hear and talk with a Hebrew teacher from Kentucky prior to services at the West Jackson Baptist Church.
