

THE JACKSON SUN.

SUNDAY, MARCH 26, 1967

Louis Nathan Rites Will Be Today

Funeral services for Louis Nathan, businessman, civic leader and world traveler, will be held this afternoon at 1:30 at Smith Funeral Home chapel, conducted by Dr. Samson H. Levey of Los Angeles, Calif., and Dr. Ernst Appel, rabbi of Temple B'nai Israel of Jackson.

Burial will be at Temple Israel Cemetery in Memphis with interment rites to be held at 4 p.m.

Mr. Nathan died Friday at 2:37 p.m. at Jackson - Madison County General Hospital after suffering a heart attack early that morning.

The son of the late Sam Nathan and Fannie Brown Nathan, he was born in Monroe, La. He came to Jackson in 1928 when he opened Nathan's women's apparel store here. Prior to that time he had been in business in Osceola, Ark.

Mr. Nathan's extensive travels carried him around the world several times, including many visits to the Holy Land. He received numerous invitations from civic clubs and other groups to describe his impressions of foreign lands.

He was a member of the Temple B'nai Israel and the

Louis Nathan - -

(Continued from Page 1)

B'nai B'rith, a veteran of World War II, a Mason and a Shriner and a member of the Jackson Rotary Club, Elks and American Legion. He was a director of the Second National Bank of Jackson.

He is survived by his widow, Sophie Blatt Nathan; two brothers, Sol Nathan of Cotton Plant, Ark., and Herbert Nathan of New Orleans, La., and a sister, Mrs. Annie Kaufman of Memphis.

Pallbearers will be Dave Gordon, Ridley Alexander, Bill Chautin, Jimmy Levenson, Irving Rosenbloom, Bill Rosenblum, Dave Richman and Bill York.

Louis Nathan

*Zichrono Livracha
May his memory be for blessing.*